

Gresham Primary School

SMSC and Collective Worship Policy

February 2023

1. INTRODUCTION

1.1 At Gresham Primary School, we recognise that the personal development of children, spiritually, morally, socially and culturally (SMSC), plays a significant part in their ability to learn and achieve. We therefore aim to provide an education that offers children with opportunities to explore and develop their own and others':

- values and beliefs
- British values
- learning skills
- spiritual awareness
- high standards of personal behaviour
- positive, caring attitude towards other people
- understanding of social and cultural traditions
- appreciation of the diversity and richness of different cultures

1.2 SMSC plays a significant part in the ability to learn and to achieve. All curriculum areas have a contribution to make to the child's spiritual, moral, social and cultural development.

1.3 All religions with emphasis on Christian values, principles and spirituality will be explored in the curriculum, especially in RE and Collective Worship. The integrity and spirituality of other faith backgrounds and those of no faith will be respected and explored. The diversity of spiritual traditions will be recognised, and children will be given access to alternative views.

1.4 All adults will model and promote expected behaviour, treating all people as valuable individuals and showing respect for children and their families. Children should learn to differentiate between right and wrong in as far as their actions affect other people. They will be encouraged to value themselves and others

1.5 Children should understand the need for rules and the need to abide by rules for the good of everyone. School and classroom rules will reflect, reiterate, promote and reward acceptable behaviour and provide opportunities to celebrate children's work and achievements.

1.6 All curriculum areas will use illustrations and examples drawn from as wide a range of cultural contexts as possible. This will be reflected in teachers' planning and learning resources.

1.7 School assemblies play a key part in promoting SMSC throughout the school.

1.8 We are currently following the LIFEWISE scheme of work. SMSC can also be taught through PSHE lessons.

2. AIMS OF SMSC

2.1 To ensure that everyone connected with the school is aware of our values and principles, including the importance of British values.

2.2 To ensure a consistent approach to the delivery of SMSC issues through the curriculum and the general life of the school.

2.3 To ensure that a child's education is set within the context that is meaningful and appropriate to their age, aptitude and background.

2.4 To ensure that children know what is expected of them and why this is important via the Gresham Learning Skills Toolkit.

2.5 To give each child a range of opportunities to reflect upon and discuss their beliefs, feelings and responses to personal experience.

2.6 To enable children to develop an understanding of their individual and group identity.

2.7 To enable children to begin to develop an understanding of their social and cultural environment and an appreciation of the many cultures that now enrich our society.

2.8 To give each child the opportunity to explore social and moral issues and develop a sense of social and moral responsibility.

2.9 To ensure the school meets the legal requirements for a daily act of collective worship which is broadly Christian in character.

3. SCHOOL ASSEMBLIES/COLLECTIVE WORSHIP

3.1 Whole school assemblies for children will be offered daily at 3 p.m. (Subject assemblies, Music, Reverend visit,

3.6 Withdrawal

3.5.1 Parents/carers will be offered the right to withdraw their children from the act of collective worship and their wishes will be respected.

3.5.2 Parents/carers are invited to talk to the headteacher if they require further information about the daily act of collective worship and/or wish to consider withdrawing their child.

3.5.3 Parents/carers are asked to inform the school in writing if they wish to withdraw their child from the act of collective worship (or parts thereof), outlining exactly what they wish their children to be withdrawn from.

3.5.4 Staff have a freedom under the 1944 Education Reform Act not to have to lead or attend collective worship. The school will respect this right, but will expect staff to attend parts of an assembly when collective worship is not taking place, e.g. the giving of notices, celebrating pupil achievements, class assemblies.

It is important that there is a consistency in the approach to this amongst the staff.

At our school, our moral code is underpinned by belief in:

4.5 Development in SMSC will take place across all curriculum areas. SMSC has particularly strong links to Religious Education, Collective Worship and Personal, Social, Health and Citizenship Education. Within all curricular activities, children will be encouraged to reflect on the significance of what they are learning, to recognise any challenges to their own attitudes and lifestyle and to recognise a spiritual dimension to their lives.

4.6 All curriculum areas should seek illustrations and examples drawn from as wide a range of cultural contexts, as possible.

4.7 Through classroom discussions during PSHE, P4C we will give the children opportunities to:

4.8 Many curriculum areas provide opportunities to:

- listen and talk to each other;
- learn an awareness of treating all as equals, accepting people who are different because of physical and learning difficulties;
- agree and disagree;
- experience good role models;
- take turns and share equipment;
- work co-operatively and collaboratively.

This is also evident in the school's 'Learning Toolkit' which promotes the following in all lessons:

- Visits to places of worship of other faiths will be arranged to support the understanding of different cultures.
- The school supports the work of a variety of charities.
- The development of a strong home-school agreement is regarded as very important, enabling parents and teachers to work in an effective partnership to support the children.
- Children will be taught to appreciate and take responsibility for their local environment.
- Liaison with local secondary schools to support the primary curriculum and effective transition, takes place regularly.

6. MONITORING AND EVALUATION

Provision for SMSC is monitored and reviewed on a regular basis. This is achieved by:

- monitoring of RE and PSHE teaching and learning by the appropriate curriculum leader;
- regular discussions at staff and governors' meetings;
- audit of policies;
- RE/PSHE development and, when relevant, inclusion in the SIP;
- collation of evidence of children's work/experience in a school portfolio.

7. IMPLEMENTATION OF POLICY

7.1 The implementation of this policy and the planning and teaching of SMSC is the responsibility of all staff.

APPENDIX A

DEFINITIONS

Spiritual development

Understanding of self and others is at the heart of spiritual development and is not linked solely to a doctrine or faith. Spiritual development is, therefore, accessible to everyone. All areas of the curriculum should contribute to children's spiritual development.

Moral development

Is concerned with children's ability to make judgements about how they should behave and act and the reasons for such behaviour. It refers to their knowledge, understanding, values and attitudes in relation to what is right or wrong. Moral development, based on Christian principles, should enable children to become increasingly responsible for their own actions and behaviour.

Social development

Refers to the development of abilities and qualities that children need to acquire if they are to play a full and active part in society. It also relates to the growth of knowledge and understanding of society in all its aspects. Children learn to lead, use their own initiative and to use individual skills and strengths when working together towards a common goal. The ability to be led, to support others and to recognise the different skills of other group members can be developed when children work cooperatively.

Cultural development

At the heart of cultural development lies the necessity to develop a sense of personal identity, whilst at the same time, acquiring awareness, understanding and tolerance regarding the cultural traditions of others.
